Foreign Delegates

To Attend Washington Meetings

Among the foreign guests who will be in attendance at the meetings of the International Union and the National Tuberculosis Association at Washington, September 30 to October 7, the following have definitely signified their intention to be present. A considerable number of others will be present, but inasmuch as no definite word has been received from them up to the time of going to press, they are not included in this list. The list does not include Canadian delegates.

Subscription Dinner, Saturday, October 2nd

The National Tuberculosis Association has planned a subscription dinner for Saturday evening, October 2, at the Mayflower Hotel, in honor of the foreign guests who will be in attendance at the meetings of the International Union against Tuberculosis and our own Twenty-second Annual Meeting.

Tickets for this dinner will be $5.00 per plate. Members and friends of the National Tuberculosis Association are cordially invited to attend. Arrangements can be made for special tables for parties organized by cities, states, or otherwise, provided sufficient notice in advance is given to the executive office.

All who expect to attend this dinner, which will be the chief public function of the International meetings, are urged to make reservations at the executive office of the National Tuberculosis Association at as early a date as possible. Tickets for the dinner may be purchased at the time of the meeting at the registration desk.

Moderate Priced Rooms in Washington

In order to accommodate those who wish less expensive rooms for the annual meeting in Washington, the National Tuberculosis Association has prepared a special list of such hotels and boarding houses. All of these are recommended to us by the Convention Bureau of Washington after careful investigation. An effort has been made to secure accommodations as near as possible to the Mayflower Hotel. A memorandum containing this information about moderately priced rooms and eating places near the Mayflower Hotel will be sent on request.

Details of rates concerning hotels offering first-class accommodations will be found in the BULLETIN for July, page 66.

All those who are planning to attend the meeting are requested to make reservations in advance as far as possible.

Reduced Rates to Washington

A reduction of one and one-half fare on the Certificate Plan will apply for members attending the meeting of the National Tuberculosis Association, to be held at Washington, D. C., September 30 to October 7, also for dependent members of their families.

Children of 5 and under 12 years of age when accompanied by parent or guardian will, under like conditions, be charged one-half of the fares for adults.

The following directions are submitted by the railroad authorities for your guidance:

1. Tickets at the regular one-way tariff fares for the going journey may be obtained on any of the following dates (but not on any other date): September 27 to October 2. Be sure that when purchasing going tickets you request a Certificate. Do not make the mistake of asking for a "Receipt."

2. Present yourself at the railroad station for tickets and certificates at least 30 minutes before departure of train on which you will begin your journey.

3. Certificates are not kept at all stations. If you inquire at your home station, you can ascertain whether certificates and through tickets can be obtained to place of meeting. If not obtainaole at your home station, the agent will inform you at what station they can be obtained. You can in such case purchase a local ticket to the station which has certificates in stock, where you can purchase a through ticket and at the same time ask for and obtain a certificate to the place of the meeting.

4. Immediately on your arrival at the meeting present your certificate to the endorsing officer, Mr. Philip P. Jacobs, Publicity Director, as the reduced fares for the return journey will not apply unless you are properly identified as provided for by the certificates.

5. It has been arranged that the Special Agent of the carriers will be in attendance on October 5 and 6, from 8.30 A.M. to 5.30 P.M., to validate certificates. If you arrive at the meeting and leave for home again prior to the Special Agent's arrival, or if you arrive at the meeting later than October 6, after the Special Agent has left, you cannot have your certificate validated and consequently you will not obtain the benefit of the reduction on the home journey.

6. So as to prevent disappointment, it must be understood that the reduction on the return journey is not guaranteed, but is contingent on an attendance of not less than 250 members of the organization at the meeting and dependent members of their families, holding regularly issued certificates obtained from ticket agents at starting points, from where the regular one-way adult tariff fares to place of meeting are not less than 67 cents on going journey.

Certificates issued to children at half fares will be counted the same as certificates held by adults.

7. If the necessary minimum of 250 certificates is presented to the Special Agent, and your certificate is duly validated, you will be entitled up to and including October 11 to a return ticket via the same route over which you made the going journey at one-half of the regular one-way tariff fare from the place of meeting to the point at which your certificate was issued.

8. Return tickets issued at the reduced fares will not be good on any limited train on which such reduced fare transportation is not honored.

9. No refund of fare will be made on account of failure to obtain proper certificate when purchasing going tickets, nor on account of failure to present validated certificate when purchasing return tickets.

Unless you are traveling on a special excursion, we urge that you get a certificate, even if you cannot use it.

Persons planning to attend the Sesqui-Centennial Exposition in Philadelphia or other meetings in that city preceding the meetings of the National Tuberculosis Association in Washington can secure special reduced fares with 15-day tickets good for return via Washington and stopover in that city.

CHARACTERS

DAVID BRECKENRIDGE — A young southern doctor

HO-TAHU-MOI—Chief of the Indian Tribe

TISHOWANA—The chieftain's daughter

SASHEWAWA—Medicine man

TOM—David's colored valet

TEH-CUM-SAH—An old Indian

MAH-SHE-TO-MA, TAHOYA } Young braves

SCENE: The forest or any colorful out-door place with a tepee at the right and a tom-tom at the center. Two openings L and R.

(Low, mournful chanting and drum beats are heard as curtain rises. A "brave" sits beating the tom-tom, while the medicine man dances around it. The tribe stands in the background, men, women — some with babies on backs—and children. There are about twenty in the tribe. On soft blankets in front of the small tent rests the dead chief. Tishowana kneels by his side, her face buried in her hands)

SONG: The Appeal (by the tribe)

Aluewa! Aluewa! Thou Mighty One,
Save us, thy children, Great Chief of the sun!
Slay him! Slay him! Slay the Mighty Evil,
Who with his breath kills us, your people.

Aluewa! Aluewa! With thy great hand
Take the Evil One from out our land.
Slay him! Slay him! Slay the Mighty Evil,
Who with his breath kills us, your people.

(Shortly before the close David and Tom walk in at L., David carrying a doctor's case and appearing very bewildered. Tom, hands full of luggage, hesitates behind and seems frightened.

Soon the tribe notices them and backs noiselessly off stage at R.

Tishowana still kneels beside her father.)

DAVID: (walking toward Tishowana) I beg your pardon, Miss . . . but—how stupid. Of course she can't understand me.

TISH: (rises to feet) Yes, I know what you speak. Tell me, white man, what you want?

DAVID: Oh! fine! What do I want? At the moment, I should like to know the reason for the very impressive ceremony of which I had the good fortune to be witness.

TISH: Oh! that was my people asking, praying for help from the Great Spirit, the Mighty Magician, who can with his one hand slay this Evil One who has for many moons been sending a fever upon our tribe. First of all to leave us was Wy-e-nah-she, the mightiest warrior of our tribe; then went Lah-wah-wal-la, wife of O-sah-ke-pah, and mother of five men children who followed her to the happy hunting grounds, one by one. All these were slain by the Evil Spirit who tortures for many weeks before he slays. And now look you, white man, upon the face of the mighty Ho-tahu-moi, bravest and kindest of chiefs. Look you upon his pale face! Can you not see the breath of this Evil One? Aluewa! Aluewa! He is dead! dead! our mighty chief, my own father. He has left us to fight alone this fever; left us, his children, and gone on westward, westward. (Points westward and kneels sorrowfully down beside Hotahu-moi.)

DAVID: (to himself) An Evil One, eh? It looks very much like typhoid to me. (Turns to Tom, who has been standing awed and silent during this conversation) Set down the grips, Tom. I think we will remain here for a time. These people seem to be in great need of medical aid, and I shall offer myself to their service.

TOM: Yes, sah, marse David, but dese heah people don' look none too peaceful. I's warnin' you, you bettah be kinda keerful. (Sets baggage down and begins looking about.)

DAVID: These people are very harmless, Tom, and we are certainly needed here badly. (Kneels beside the sobbing girl) Now, now, Miss chieftainess. Come. Be brave. Your people need you. (Lifts her to her feet) I am going to remain here and fight this Evil One who has killed your father and many others. Won't you tell me your name, fair princess?

TISH: I am called Tishowana. And you, O white man, who are you and from where did you come?

DAVID: My name is David Breckinridge and I am a doctor. Tom and I are from the South, and we are going farther on West to visit my aunt who lives there. I am very happy now that my automobile broke down and sent us seeking a village or a place or lodging, for I can help you and your people if you will let me.

TISH: Doctor Man, I thank you, for great is my fear of this fever. I know you can help, for in the mission school far in the city I learned much of the mighty doctor men and their great power.

DAVID: That is fine of you to believe in me. Tom, will you go and bring the remainder of our provisions from the car? Tishowana, while he is doing this, I shall look over your water supply if you can direct me to it.

TOM: Yes, sah, marse David. (Exit Tom at L.)

TISH: It is far down the trail. (Goes to right and calls) Tahoya! Tahoya! Kuewai! Kuewai! (Enter Tahoya at R.)

TISH: Tahoya, this is a mighty doctor man that the Great Spirit has sent to fight the Evil One. Take him down the trail and show him the stream which gives us water for our thirst.

DAVID: Goodbye, Tishowana, I will be back soon.

TISH: Goodbye, Doctor Man. (Exit Tahoya and David at R.)

TISH: Kuewai! my people, kuewai! (Enter tribe at R. group on stage) Take your mighty chief into the forest. Take the great Ho-tahu-moi into the green woodlands and bury him 'neath the earth, saupa, the black earth, and return when the sun is above you that you may heed the words of Tishowana, your chieftainess. (Goes over to the body of Ho-tahu-moi) Farewell, oh great and kind Ho-tahu-moi! Farewell, my father. Go on into the west land and prepare a place for your people that we may follow in your footsteps. Farewell! Farewell! (Four braves carry him out at R. Tribe follows slowly in a procession.)

(Enter Tom at L loaded with provisions.)

TOM: I done been and gone and got dese heah 'visions, marse David. What am I to do wid 'em? Oh! Lordy! he ain't heah. Has you all done scalped him?

(Enter David and Tahoya at R.)

DAVID: No, Tom, I am right here. Set the provisions down and make yourself comfortable. I have work to do.

TOM: Comf'table? Marse David, de ain't no sich word in dis heathen lan'!

(Sets provisions down and exits at L.)

DAVID: Tishowana, I have found the cause of this dreaded fever whose real name is Typhoid.

TISH: Is that what this Evil One is called?

DAVID: Yes, and the water which you drink gives you this fever.

TISH: Is the breath of the Evil One in the water?

DAVID: Exactly that. Is there no other place where you can get water to drink?

TISH: Far up the mountains there is a little spring; but the trail is rough and the journey long.

DAVID: Perhaps that is true, Tishowana, and yet you must get water from there if you are to save your tribe.

TISH: I will, O Doctor Man, for your words are mighty pools of wisdom.

DAVID: Fair Princess, I am very glad you think so. I have never in all my life wanted to help anyone so badly as I do you and your people. (Enter tribe at R.)

TISH: My people, for many moons an Evil One has been sending a fever upon us. At sunrise we offered a prayer to the Great Spirit, and he, with his mighty love for his children, has sent a doctor man to fight the Evil One. Sashewasa has failed to drive away this mighty Evil, and now let us heed the words of the wise white man who was sent to us from the Mighty Magician.

DAVID: Friends, this Evil One who sends his fever upon you dwells in the streams from whose depths you receive your water.

SASHEWAWA: Come, braves! with our arrows we will kill him.

TRIBE: (in unison, holding up their bows and arrows) Kill him! Kill him! Kill the Evil One!

(At this point have Tom enters from L with a roll of blankets. On seeing the warriors with drawn bows apparently aiming at him, he tosses blankets and hat in the air and disappears L.)

DAVID: No, no, my friends, you cannot kill him. He is not like the mighty bear, nor even like the timid rabbit, for this Evil One is called a germ and is so small you cannot see him. You have drunk the water of the stream and now have within you this germ, this Evil One.

TRIBE: (in unison) We will die! Aluewa! We will die!

DAVID: No, you will not die, for I have a mighty needle that can kill this germ. (Goes to case and brings forth needle) See, friends, it has a magic power which alone can slay the Evil One. I shall place the needle in your arm like this (illustrates on his own arm by placing needle against flesh) then with the true aim of a hunter who spies the red deer in the forest, I shall kill this deadly germ, kill him with the powerful needle, and thus you will be free from the Evil One. Let some young brave step forward that he may be the first to be freed from this germ that is called Typhoid Fever. (Advances toward them.)

TRIBE: (backs fearfully away) No! No! It will kill us! No! No!

DAVID: Don't be afraid, my friends. It will kill the Evil One, but it will not harm you.

TRIBE: (shouting) No! No! No!

TISH: O, Doctor Man, we cannot understand it—your mighty needle. It is so strange and powerful. My people are afraid, and even I, their chieftainess, fear it.

DAVID: Tishowana, you fear it? Not you, surely?

TISH: Your spirit is brave and good and your words are wisdom, but I cannot understand them.

DAVID: (sadly) You do not believe in me then, lovely Tishowana?

TISH: O Doctor Man! It is not that I do not believe in your words. It is only that I am ignorant of your ways—ignorant of the powerful needle. What we cannot understand, we fear.

DAVID: If only I could show you and your people that it is harmless, I could save them from the fever. (Addresses the tribe) Is there not one of you who will be brave enough to allow me to kill the Evil One within him?

TRIBE: (Backing still farther away) No! No! Osh-kee-ka! No!

TEH-CUM-SAH: Young white brave, seventy winters have flown over my head, and seventy summers have I trod the forest path. I have killed the rattle snake in the summer and tracked the coyote to his den in the winter. Always have I been known as "brave Teh-cum-sah, the mighty," but, White Doctor, I fear your magic needle more than the rattle snake, more than the coyote.

MAH-SHE-TO-MA: He speaks words of wisdom, O White Man. Though I have seen not many summers, even now they call me "Mah-she-to-mah, the brave one," but I, Mah-she-to-mah, would not brave your needle.

DAVID: Then I have failed to save you. Must I admit defeat and go my way?

TISH: No, no, Doctor Man. (Rushes to him) I, Tishowana, their chieftainess, will brave the magic needle. (Turns toward tribe) Surely, if I am saved, my people, you, too, will let him kill the Evil One within you?

TRIBE: (Nods an affirmative and raise arms) Ho! Ho!

TEH-CUM-SAH: Go, brave Tishowana. Go! If it kills you not, we follow.

TRIBE: (shouting) Ho! Ho!

(Tishowana takes the serum. The tribe looks on fearfully)

(Re-enter Tom.)

TOM: You still alive, marse David?

DAVID: Certainly, Tom, you are just in time to assist me in vaccinating these newly-acquired friends.

TOM: Dey is friends now, but de ain't no tellin' what dey 'ud be ef you let dat needle slip. Be mighty keerful, marse David, I shore 'ud like to see my sweet Clarena once mo' befo' I die.

DAVID: (finishing the vaccination) Now, lovely Tishowana, the Evil One is killed and you are saved.

TISH: You are wise, oh, very wise, Doctor Man. How could I have doubted you. Come! my people, see! I am saved and the Evil One is killed.

TRIBE: Brave Doctor! Brave Doctor! Ho!

TEH-CUM-SAH: Take me, White Doctor. Take the mighty Teh-cum-sah!

(David begins vaccinating the tribe; Tom carries his instruments and supplies.)

TOM: (after David has vaccinated about six) Be mighty keerful dere. Don't let dat needle slip.

DAVID: Why, Tom, don't you trust my sureness of hand?

TOM: Yes, sah, but I ain't trustin' dem bows and arrows none too much.

DAVID: (finishing the vaccination) Now, my friends, the Evil One is killed, but you must not drink his poisoned water or again he will send his fever upon you. Go up to the mountain spring and bring the good, fresh water down here that you may drink the purest and best. Tom, you may go with them and help.

TOM: Does I has to, marse David?

DAVID: Don't you want to be of help, Tom?

TOM: Ef you put it dat way, I reckons I does, but you shore is makin' slim my chances ob eber see-in' my sweet Clarena agin.

(Exit tribe and Tom at R.)

DAVID: The sun is setting, Tishowana. How beautiful it is in the west!

TISH: Yes, Doctor Man, our land is going to be happy once again since you have shown us the way to health. You have done much for me and my people; I thank you, Brave Doctor.

DAVID: By those words I have been repaid. I love you, Tishowana.

TISH: And—I love you, Doctor Man.

SONG: Sunset. (By David and Tishowana)

A beautiful Indian maid are you
With eyes of the darkest raven hue.
Your laugh is the lilt of the flowing brook,
That murmurs gently through a shaded nook.
I take your hand, Tishowana, my own.
The bravest, sweetest girl I've known.
O, doctor of mine, you are brave and wise;
Great manliness shines from without your eyes.
You saved my people from the Evil One,
And now, when the day is over and done,
I give you my hand for ever and aye,
And "I love you" are the words that I would say.

(DUET)

In the scarlet west the sun is setting,
And the squirrel in his tree-top is fretting;
The wind whispers gently through giant oaks,
And the fire of health from the wigwam smokes,
Hand in hand we'll follow the winding trail
Over life's mountain peaks, down to the vale.

(Tribe returns carrying buckets and bowls of water. Tom brings up the rear.)

TRIBE: Nelagony! Nelagony! (They set buckets down.)

TOM: Marse David, when is we gwine to leave this heathen lan' an' go home?

DAVID: How can you talk of home when you see how happy I am!

TOM: Oh, Lordy, dey ain't no mo' chance ob me gittin' to see my sweet Clarena.

(Sashewana begins to beat the tom-tom. Tribe begins singing. Curtain goes slowly down.)

SONG: Sleep (By the tribe)

The black night falls;
The tom-tom calls;
The stars give light;
The fire burns bright.

Come! To the wigwam let us go,
While the winds in the tree-tops blow;
Health and happiness now have we,
From the Evil One we are free.

The night bird screams;
The pale moon beams;
The fireflies peep;
Let us sleep!

Indian words pronounced and explained.
In proper names give all syllables equal accent.

Wy-e-nah-she = Wí-é-ná-shé
Ho-tahu-moi = Ho-ta-moy
Tishowana = Tish-o-wa-na
Teh-cum-sah = Te-cum-sa
Mah-she-to-ma = Ma-she-to-ma
Tahoyo = Ta-hoy-a
Lah-wah-wal-la = Lá-wá-wál-lá
O-sah-ke-pah = O-sá-ke-pá
Aluewa = A-loo-wa; an expression of sorrow or grief
Kuewai = Cue-wa; come hither
Oshkeeka = Osh-kee-ka, it is not good; it is bad
Nelagony = Ne-lag-o-ny, means good water. Ne is water, lagony is good. The Indians put the noun before its modifying adjective.

Play Writing Contest for 1926-1927

The Child Health Education Service of the National Tuberculosis Association herewith announces that a play writing contest for high schools will again be held during the school year 1926-1927. Conditions governing this contest will be the same as for the preceding one.

Manuals setting forth these conditions may be obtained from the National office or through your State Tuberculosis Association.
